

COPY OF FORM 990

(TO BE USED, OR COPIED, FOR)

PUBLIC INSPECTION ONLY

NOTE

Under Internal Revenue Regulations, tax-exempt charitable organizations generally must provide requesters with COPIES of:

- Its approved exemption applications, all required attachments and any related correspondence with the IRS, and
- Its three most recent annual information returns (Form 990), including all schedules and attachments (but not the names and addresses of contributors).

In-person requests: A member of the public may request to inspect the documents at any principal office of the organization. The entity must provide the information requested that same day. However, if the request places an “unreasonable burden” on the organization, the staff must provide copies of the requested information no later than the next business day after the unusual circumstances cease to exist (limited to a maximum of five business days after the request).

Written requests: Written requests made by fax, mail, email, or overnight service, which include the requester’s address, must be honored within 30 days of receipt.

Website alternative: Instead of providing copies, an organization may make the documents available on either its own or another organization's website. If it uses this option, it has to: (1) provide an exact replica of the document as was filed with the IRS; (2) advise requesters how to access the forms on the web; (3) the site should charge no access fee and require no special software or hardware to download. Organizations that post this information on the Internet still must honor in-person requests to view the applicable documents.

Permissible charges: Tax-exempt organizations may charge a reasonable copying fee, up to $1 for the first page and 15 cents for each additional page, plus actual postage costs.

Penalties: An organization that fails to comply with the new disclosure requirements may be subject to the following penalties:

- Annual Information Return – Form 990 - $20 per day for as long as the failure continues, up to a maximum of $10,000 for each failure to provide an annual return.
- Exemption Application - $20 per day with no maximum.
- An organization that willfully fails to comply with these public inspection rules can be subject to an additional $5,000 penalty.

Private foundation exempt: The new disclosure rules don't yet apply to private foundations. They must still make a copy of their annual return available for public inspection at their principal office for a period of 180 days after publishing a notice of availability.

Donor Information: Please note that donor information is not open to public inspection and has been excluded from this copy.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

In addition, Medical Ambassadors has helped many other organizations use CHE through training and consultation. Others want to learn about CHE because of its practicality, flexibility, and proven success. In 2008, Medical Ambassadors initiated a new collaborative that now operates under separate non-profit registration to form a network of the many other organizations. This network has become a forum for sharing ideas, but is not owned by any of the collaborating organizations. Members from 700+ other NGOs and FBOs have now agreed to help each other implement CHE in their areas. Medical Ambassadors, along with these other organizations, have reached and impacted over 6,000 communities in well over 128 countries, impacting more than eight million people around the globe.

The extensive CHE curriculum has been augmented with updated lessons on disease diagnosis and treatment, water collection and purification, agriculture, animal husbandry, marketing, micro-enterprise, savings groups, simple reproductive technology, ecology, literacy, marriage and family relationships, parenting skills, and local church leadership training. These lessons, over 8,000 of them, are available to all members of the CHE network. As a result, at the local village or urban community level, well over 50,000 volunteer Community Health Evangelist/Educators have been trained by MAI directly and through the many partners that MAI has. Reports suggest that many times this number of people are active in Bible study and Bible story-telling/discussion groups. Practical application of what the Bible teaches is transforming the daily lives of thousands of families, and transforming whole communities around the world.

90% of the impact of Medical Ambassadors is generated through the efforts of unpaid volunteers around the world, trained and encouraged by Medical Ambassadors paid staff. The contribution of Volunteers globally is enormous, and this has only been possible due to the unique model MAI has of being able to mobilize, motivate and train volunteers, who in turn train generations of other volunteers.

Many organizations pay staff to deliver similar services of community development. However, MAI teaches people to make improvements in their own communities, as volunteers. In essence, we "teach them to fish, rather than give them a fish." This allows their programs to be sustainable after we leave, and can be more easily copied by others.

This is another reason that the program has replicated extensively. In turn, If MAI could include the value of these volunteer services in its calculation of overhead vs program expenses, its overhead percentage would decrease radically.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

Form 990 was prepared by an independent CPA firm and was reviewed in detail and approved by the organization's top management. A copy was provided to all board members before filing with the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Board members and officers are required to disclose potential conflicts of interest by completing and signing an annual questionnaire which is reviewed by management. Should any potential conflicts of interest be disclosed, the board member or officer would be asked to refrain from participation in any deliberation or decision with regard to matters affected by the relationship.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

On an annual basis, the VP of Administration (two sources: Compensation in Nonprofit Orgs in CA and Christian Leadership Assoc Compensation Handbook for Christian Ministries) for comparable salaries and prepares a salary range to be provided to the board (in case of President position), or President and other officers in the case of management staff salaries. If range in data is varied, then a call to a similar nonprofit ministry is made. The salaries are approved by independent board (President), or President and other officers (management staff) and are documented in MAI's budget data and minutes.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:

The Donor Bill of Rights can be accessed on our website which includes our policy to provide information upon donor request. Requests for governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements can be made personally, by phone, or email, and the organization will promptly send this information.

Form 990, Part IX:

Overhead percentages, although acceptable, reflect only Medical Ambassadors International's actual financial expenditures. Since most of our field work is done by volunteers, MAI financial impact on the local communities is many times (perhaps hundreds of times) greater than our expenditures suggest.
